PIRTLE MAKES GOOD ON FAIR BOARD

The following article from the Tucson Citizen shows that E. R. Pirtle, the new fair commissioner from this city has lost no time in getting to work in the interest of the territorial fair and is active and energetic in that work which is along effective lines.

E. R. Pirtle, the new member of the territorial fair commission, chosen to fill the vacancy caused by the recent resignation of Commissioner B. A. Packard, arrived this morning from his home in Douglas to join the other fair commissioners here and attend the celebration. Commissioners Moore and Campbell, together with Secretary Shirley Christy and Ned Cretchton, the press agent for the fair, will arrive here tomorrow morning.

An important feature of the fair commissioner's visit to Tucson will be a conference which they will hold with Col. Epps Randolph and General Freight and Passenger Agent R. S. Stubbs, in which they will endeavor not only to secure lower passenger rates from all territorial points to Phoenix for the coming fair, but will also ask for a marked reduction on existing freight tariffs on automobiles from California points.

Plan Sight Seeing Trips.
The purpose of the fair commission in making this latter request, said Commissioner Pirtle today, "is to induce a large number of wealthy eastern tourists to ship their automobiles over to Phoenix from the coast. If that is done, they will be conducted on a sight-seeing tour of the territory which will embrace the Roosevelt dam, the chief mines of the territory at Bisbee, Jerome and Douglas and the old Spanish missions at Tucson and other places in the territory. "This, we believe, will constitute an interesting event, and will serve to acquaint many desirable people with Arizona, who might not otherwise chance to learn of its advantages at first hand."

The day when this conference will be held will not be decided upon until after the commissioners arrive here and make an engagement with the officials of the railroad.

Prizes Total $31,000.
Commissioner Pirtle states that this year's fair will be bigger and better than ever. About $20,000 in prizes will be distributed in the racing events and $10,000 will be awarded for the school exhibits, which will be an innovation.

As soon as Arizona becomes a state, we expect to secure an appropriation of about $150,000 for the building of concrete buildings, chief among which will be an agricultural building and one for the Woman's department."

GUTHBERT TELLS OF SINGAPORE RUBBER

R. V. Guthbert, a younger brother of H. T. Guthbert of this city, arrived in Douglas last evening from Singapore and remained over night and this morning, leaving this afternoon for Van Courver, where he will visit another brother and from whence he will proceed across the continent to New York where there is still another brother to be visited. He was met at Benson by H. T. Guthbert, with whom he visited Bisbee yesterday afternoon and came to Douglas on the evening train. The two brothers had not met for six years.

Mr. Guthbert talked interestingly last night of conditions about Singapore, and especially about the rubber industry. He told of the companies which had formed first at low capitalizations, bought rubber tree country at $50 an acre, and are now paying 200 per cent. dividends. He states that the lands costs more now and that the capitalizations are higher, but that companies are sure of annual dividends of from 20 to 40 per cent. He is enthusiastic over the possibilities of the rubber industry.

After a visit to this country Mr. Guthbert will go to England and to Scotland, and in England will join the Singapore rifle team, of which he is a member, and with whom he will shoot several matches.

TOMMY LAW IS ON THE NEW JOB

(Douglas International.)
That Tommy Law, late of the Gadsden, manager, is born to the limelight, cannot help but land in the center of the stage and simply has to be given publicity is shown by the following, which appears in the Los Angeles Herald "Hotel Corridor" column. His Douglas friends will be glad to learn that the Angel City is so quick to appreciate him. The eulogy of our Thomas reads thusly:

Mine Host Tommy Law is on the job at the King Edward.
He took charge of things Sunday morning early and is now to be seen most at the desk at the King Edward, his right hand continually outstretched to welcome the incoming or speeding the outgoing guest. And it's that very stunt, the glad hand stunt, that has made the King Edward's new management the popular hotel man he is.

Still there is another thing which is one of Tommy's greatest assets. That's his memory. It's a peach. He began to remember names and faces from the first time he saw the light of day, and he has been steadily on the job ever since. He knows them all. Yesterday a man strolled up to the desk at the King Edward, Tommy's hand shot out and the stranger grasped it.

"I used to know you ten years ago," said Tommy.
"Yes, I did," replied the man.
"Yes, I did," returned Tommy pleasantly but positively.

"Where?" asked the man.
"In Douglas,"

"Sure and your right," said the prospective guest smiling. "I remember you myself now."

And that's the way it goes. A reporter asked Tommy when he began to remember names and faces.

"Don't know, always have," he replied laconically.

Temperance Lesson. Prov. xxiii: 29-35.

Golden Text—At the last, it biteth like a serpent, and stingeth like an adder. Prov. xxiii: 32.

(1.) Verse 32—What is the general rule concerning the first personal effects of bad, or good things, are they generally pleasant or otherwise? Give some examples.

(2.) Verse 33—What is the effect upon the individual, his family, and the community when a man taries long at the wine?

(3.) Verse 34—Why is it that none of us are exempt from trouble?

(4.) What is the difference in the effect of trouble caused by our own sins, and trouble which comes from providential causes?

(5.) Is a self-inflicted wound worse than any other? Why, or why not?

(6.) Verse 35—What is the effect upon what Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound has accomplished for them have been received by the Lydia E. Pinkham Medicine Company, Lynn, Mass.

Young Girls, Heed This.

Girls who are troubled with painful or irregular periods, headache, nervousness, dragging-down sensations, fainting spells or indigestion, should take immediate action to ward off the serious consequences and be restored to health by Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound. Thousands have been restored to health by its use.

If you would like special advice about your case write a confidential letter to Mrs. Pinkham, at Lynn, Mass. Her advice is free, and always helpful.

(7.) What is the effect when a man drinks wine in so-called moderation? (8.) Verse 31—What proportion of the victims of drink, have deliberately started out to become drunkards? (9.) What are the first steps to the life and destiny of a drunkard? (This question may have to be answered in writing by members of the club.)

(10.) Which is the wiser, and stronger, or man and why—the one who shuns the first approach of a temptation, or the one who carefully looks at it, and deliberately feels its charm, and then refuses its solicitation?

(11.) Is it, or not, always a legitimate source of pleasure to feast our eyes upon beautiful sights, our ears upon pleasant sounds, and to inhale sweet odors? Why?

(12.) Give a reasoned answer as to whether is it ever right to be governed by our senses.

(13.) Verse 32—Specifically some of the things which drink does for a man.

(14.) Describe some of the horrors of delirium tremens.

(15.) In considering an act, or a habit should we be governed by its present or its ultimate results? Why?

(16.) Verse 33—Is the drink habit generally or ever a single vice, or does it always engender other vices, and, if so, what are they?

(17.) When any kind of sensual temptation assails a man, or a woman, under the influence of drink, what are the chances of its being resisted or yielded to?

(18.) How much confidence can you place in a promise or an opinion, or a sentiment, uttered by a man under the influence of drink?

(19.) Verse 34—How does a man feel on a sailor, feel on the "top of a mast," and what analogy is there between such feelings and the sensations of a drunkard?

(20.) Verse 35—Compare some conscious and unconscious hurts, either spiritual or physical, and say which are the most dangerous.

(21.) What is the fascination, or the cause, which influences drinkers to keep on in the course which they know is ruining both body and soul?

SOL CAMP ARRESTED.

The following from the Denver Mining Record may relate to the same Sol Camp who was formerly interested in mining properties in the Nacozari district and afterwards in an about Sylvaite.

It is reported from Nevada that Sol Camp was arrested at Downsville, Cal., by a deputy United States marshal the other day on the charge of using the United States mails for defrauding purposes, it being alleged that fraudulent statements were sent through the mails by a man named M. P. O'Farrell.

Some time ago Camp belonged to a firm of Brokers at Goldfield, known as Patrick, Elliott and Camp. Camp claims that he disposed of his share of the business of O'Farrell a year or more to the time when the fraudulent statements were sent through the mails, but the deal was never made known, and the firm continued under the same name.

Some time ago O'Farrell attempted suicide and Elliott, one of the same firm, died. Patrick is being held under an indictment charge. Camp's bail was fixed at $25,000 and he is to appear before the federal court at Carson some time in the near future.
